This Book

in its entirety, is the product of the Printing, Binding, and Engraving Departments of The Peter Paul Book Co., Buffalo, New York, and is in itself an advertisement of the character of the work being executed in their establishment.

Advertisement

THE BUFFALO ADDRESS BOOK has become one of Buffalo's permanent institutions, and its appearance every two years is eagerly looked for by thousands. Its field of usefulness, which was originally intended to be among the society people of the city, has gradually extended to the business element, until now no firm doing any volume of local business can afford to be without it. In sending out circulars and announcements which are intended to reach a particular locality, it is invaluable. It contains a list of the apartment houses in the territory covered by the canvass, and a very carefully compiled and classified list of clubs and societies. With its increasing popularity among those who appreciate its usefulness, its value as an advertising medium is yearly enhanced; the class of people who subscribe for it, and the constant and incessant use to which it is put by the transient public as well as the subscribers, place it in the very front rank of advertising mediums. A Shoppers' Guide, classified and arranged according to the kind of business, is a prominent feature of the book, and is an aid to both advertiser and subscriber.

WE CALL PARTICULAR ATTENTION TO THE

Shoppers' Guide ..

AT END OF BOOK.

This department of The Address Book has always proven a source of great satisfaction and convenience to all those who have used it. We can recommend the houses represented as the best in Buffalo, and shopping lists can be made up from it without hesitation as to the standing of the advertisers. Telephone numbers are given in the Index to Advertisers in the front of book.

PREFACE.

IN presenting The Buffalo Address Book and Family Directory for 1898-1899 to the public, the publishers are pleased to note that this volume completes nine consecutive issues, covering in all a period of eighteen years. Each issue has been larger in scope and more artistic in make-up than its predecessor, and this issue, in particular, is no exception to the rule.

The methods of compilation have been similar to those adopted in former issues, and they wish to extend their thanks to all those who rendered assistance by promptly furnishing them with the information sought. There were some instances where information was refused, and others where whole families were out of town, which compelled them to rely on information furnished by others, the absolute correctness of which cannot, of course, be vouched for in all cases.

The handsome cover design used on this issue of The Address Book is the work of H. L. Seidenstricker, and is the result of a prize competition by members of the Art Students' League, the committee appointed by the Buffalo Society of Artists having awarded it the first prize.

In conclusion, the publishers desire to express their appreciation of the many kind expressions of approval from the advertisers and subscribers, which have always been a stimulus to make the book as nearly perfect as possible, and hope that this year, more than ever, it will continue to be a daily need in their business and social life.

Announcement

Almost simultaneously with the issuing of THE BUFFALO ADDRESS BOOK for 1898-1899, we will be situated in our elegant and commodious new store at 448 Main Street. .. Lack of facilities and accommodations in the manufacturing departments, as well as in the store, in our old building, made this change imperative. .. The Printing, Engraving, and Binding Departments will occupy the building in the rear, 257 Pearl Street, with entrance through the Main Street store. .. We feel that with the increased and perfected facilities which this change gives us, and with our well-known reputation for selling and producing only the very best of everything, we ought to be able to make it an object for everyone to do business with us. In any event, whether as customer or not, we extend to you a cordial invitation to visit us in our new quarters.

Very cordially yours,
THE PETER PAUL BOOK CO.

Card to the Public

Having had the long experience of twenty-one years actual work at upholstering and drapery, I claim to be master of my profession. Few pupils ever get the opportunity to study the art and trade of upholstery from a skillful mechanic, and consequently they never reach that stage of efficiency so essential in doing proper work and being able to suggest styles and coverings to a prospective buyer.

My prices today are just as low as I can possibly make them with the use of the very best materials. No other concern can manufacture special furniture as good as mine and even sell it at the price I quote. Any claims to the contrary I know to be impossible. A visit to my enlarged showrooms and an inspection of my line of coverings will bear out all I claim.

Yours very respectfully,

CHARLES C. FAUST.

ARE YOU LOOKING FOR ..

Fine Upholstered Furniture?

That is the only kind I make. I also can make your furniture from my own or special designs, without extra cost. Let me give you my estimates before placing your orders.

The Satisfaction

you experience in using a really good article more than compensates you for the slight additional price paid for it over something cheap and shoddy. In some lines of goods we carry nothing but the best, and in consequence are sometimes undersold—but get our prices and see the goods before purchasing elsewhere. Do not get the false impression that we are high in everything.

Fountain Pens.

Thousands sold now to dozens a few years ago. Why? Because they are now made thoroughly practical. No inky fingers, no white shirts spoiled from overflow of ink, and no ill temper created by a "perhaps and perhaps not" flow. We carry the "SWAN," made by one of America's largest pen factories. We guarantee them. You order, and, if not thoroughly satisfactory, return, and we refund money.

Price, with 18 k. Gold Pen:

Small size,	.	.	.	$2.25
Medium size,	.	.	.	3.50
Large size,	.	.	.	5.00

FINE, MEDIUM, OR STUB POINTS.

Send for trial pen; we send on order to responsible parties.

Anything in Leather Goods?

A pocketbook for lady or gentleman—perhaps a portemonnaie or card case—in those EXQUISITE HAND-CARVED MEXICAN LEATHER GOODS. They cost no more than shoddily made goods, and we carry only the best.

How handy for a gentleman is a stick-pin case ($1.00), or a set of umbrella and cane straps (75c.)! Then there's a portfolio for my lady's desk: everything is at fingers' ends for writing when there's one in the house.

BUT DON'T FORGET US IF YOU WANT ANYTHING IN THE LEATHER LINE.

WITH THE

Fidelity Trust & Guaranty Co.

OF BUFFALO, N. Y.

- 3—YOU MAY FREELY CHECK against your account without the inconvenience of a pass book. Cash checks with your pass book.
- 4—THE CAPITAL of The Fidelity Trust & Guaranty Co. is $500,000.00 and its stockholders have paid an additional $500,000.00. It is a sinking fund for depositors and a guarantee.
